

47USC227 should be augmented to cover unsolicited commercial electronic mail ("spam"). So doing would reduce congestion, increase productivity, and would eliminate the major marketing method of fraudulent materials that are sold on the Internet.